

Christian LIEBERKNECHT is a Vice President of Housing Europe - The European Federation for Public, Cooperative and Social Housing. Besides being a Vice President of Housing Europe, Christian is a Managing Director of the GdW (GdW Bundesverband deutscher Wohnungs- und Immobilienunternehmen).

Jean-Paul DENANOT is a Member of European Parliament for the Group of the Progressive Alliance of Socialists and Democrats. Besides being an MEP, Jean-Paul is a Chairman of the Common Goods & Public Services Intergroup.

Jérôme KRIER is an Executive Advisor to the Luxembourg Housing Ministry. He will be representing Luxembourg as one of the Council of European Union presidency trio.

Raymond HENCKS is a Member of the European Economic and Social Committee (EESC). As a Member of the EESC, he is a Member of the Executive Committee, General Civil Service Confederation. He is also active in the EESC's Group II within three sections – Section for Transport, Energy, Infrastructure and the Information Society (TEN), Section NAT (NAT) and Section for the Single Market, Production and Consumption (INT).

Alice PITTINI is a Director of Research & Observatory Centre of Housing Europe. Alice has been working at Housing Europe since 2006 with different responsibilities over the years. Alice deals with devising and conducting studies to provide strategic advice to Housing Europe policy work and monitoring development of housing and living conditions in the EU and relevant research projects.

Gulnara ROLL is a Head of Housing and Land Management Unit at the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) and Secretary to the intergovernmental Committee on Housing and Land Management. The unit serves as Secretariat to two intergovernmental bodies - Committee on Housing and Land Management and Working Party on Land Administration. The UNECE is one of five regional commissions of the United Nations; it was established with the aim to promote pan-European economic integration. There are 56 UNECE member States in Europe, the Caucasus, Central Asia and Northern America. The UNECE provides policy advice, sets out norms, standards and conventions to facilitate international cooperation within and outside the region.

Orna ROSENFELD is serving as a senior housing expert at United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE). She is the author of United Nations study that examines current trends and challenges in housing sector in 56 countries of the global north. In addition, Dr. Rosenfeld is a lecturer at Sciences Po - L'Institut d'études politiques de Paris and an honorary research fellow at the University of Westminster in London. She has published academically in the UK, Spain and Italy and presented her research at numerous international conferences. She regularly consults for international organisations and banks, national and city governments, research agencies, private sector property providers as well as NGOs. Her expertise lies in housing and urban development policy analysis, research, design as well as implementation; specifically housing market renewal, affordable housing provision, housing finance, management of large scale project implementation, multi-level governance analysis and optimisation.

Viorica REVENCO is an Economist at the Council of Europe Development Bank. Prior this position worked Viorica on different economic and financial position in private sector.

Jean-Charles BRICONGNE is an economist at the Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs of the European Commission. He works on issues related to housing markets, household and corporate indebtedness and financial flows. He is also associate professor in France. He holds a PhD from Paris School of Economics (Paris I University), where his research focused on the link between the financial and the real spheres with a focus on the crisis of trade, and an engineer diploma from the Ecole Centrale Paris. Previously, he was counsellor of the General Director for Studies and International Affairs, and head of a division working on competitiveness at Banque de France.

Laurent GHÉKIERE is a Director of European Affairs at Union Sociale pour l'Habitat (USH). Leading the Brussels representation of USH, he represents the organisation towards EU Institutions. Laurent has recently been made Chevalier (Knight) of the Legion of Honour of the French Republic in recognition of his achievements for the social housing sector.

Agnes JONGERIUS is a Member of the European Parliament for the Group of the Progressive Alliance of Socialists and Democrats. Besides being an MEP, Agnes is a Vice-Chair of Netherlands Partij van de Arbeid, a member of Committee on Employment and Social Affairs; Committee on International Trade; Delegation for relations with India and Delegation for relations with the countries of Southeast Asia and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN)

Virginia MAESTRI is a socio-economic analyst at the Directorate General for Employment, Social Affairs & Inclusion of the European Commission.

Freek SPINNEWIJN is a Director of FEANTSA – European federation of organisations working on homelessness and housing exclusion. FEANTSA is a European network representing most of the NGO homelessness sector. Involved in lobbying at EU level, research, and campaigning. Prior his recent position, Freek worked as a Director for EPSO – European federation of elderly organisations. EPSO is a European organisation representing the interests of older people at EU level. Merged with other organisations into AGE which brings together organisations representing older people and service provider organisations.