

EUROPEAN RESPONSIBLE HOUSING AWARDS 2016

Confronted with growing economic, social and environmental challenges, the public, cooperative and social housing sector is undergoing significant transformation across Europe.

More and more, housing organisations are enhancing and demonstrating their capacity to innovate, their efficiency, performance and added value for European citizens and communities.

Providing affordable, good quality housing and services responding to the variety of needs and thus contribute to sustainable local communities, to the residents' well-being, to their quality of life and their empowerment, this is the core of responsible housing.

In 2016, public, cooperative and social housing providers will be able to compete for the 2nd edition of the European Housing Responsible Awards.

Highlight your commitment to responsible housing and promote your best practices among your peers and partners!

Highlight how your organisation is making a difference!

Already in 2014, 42 housing organisations from 12 countries have shared with more than 200 participants, in the first ever edition of the European Responsible Housing Awards, innovative approaches in their everyday work, taking into consideration 5 key elements:

-  Economic Responsibility and Sustainability
-  Local Social Sustainability
-  Environmental Sustainability
-  Good governance and fair relations with stakeholders
-  Responsible human resources management

70
best practices

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Key European stakeholders as Jury members, chaired by the International Union of Tenants, will evaluate whether the applications indeed meet cross-cutting criteria consistent with the European Responsible Housing Code of Conduct. The Jury will assess how the submitted “good practice” contributes to the applicant’s CSR, on the particular dimension corresponding to the entry category.
